This is perhaps the last opportunity shall have before the Prusidential election connecling with some of our reader resident in the more remote sections of the event. But a very little time interve from next Tuesday the tale will be told ple, and especially the Democracy, ing what we consider their duty as Amer RIER has consistently advocated, with a ergy and ability of which It was o palle, those patriotic and national sent ments entertained by the great majority the people of the State It has constan the exponent of Democratic views the organ through which Democratic sen timents and principles were promulgated. We therefore appeal to Kentuckians, i this most momentous crisis of our affairs, in the full confidence that they will hearken to the counsel we shall give

Kentuckians! One week from next Tue day, as we have said, the Presidential eleion is to take place. On that day an issu is to be decided infinitely more impo han any other that has ever come befo the American people. On that day the people of the United States are to determine whether they will longer retain th ne-honored system of government unde which they have lived and prospered & the best part of a century You have voice in that decision. You, as the clt zens of one of the States of this conte eration, will be called on to assist in ma ing up the decision as to whether the Go ernment of Washington, and Jefferson, and Madison, and Jackson, and Clay is to continue, or whether the "new nation" ries Sumner and the Itadical party is to take its place. As American citizen this question cannot fail to enlist you carnest attention; as freemen you are v ally concerned in the manner of its solu
